

Principios para la Reducción de los Conflictos entre Osos y la Gente

A document that gathers the essence of conflict reduction

Porque producir este documento?

- Several groups and governments working on the issue around the world
- Different approaches of working have already been tried and tested
- Main components for success identified by experts working on the issue
- Successful components range cross species and countries

What was the aim of such document

Provide an overarching base to act as a reference for the different entities working to resolve the issue. This document would be both brief and outline the complexities of the problem and its solutions.

Who was involved?

- Funded by the World Society for the Protection of Animals
- Organised by WSPA and Doga Dernegi
- Participants included international experts on human bear conflict reduction from different countries and fields of expertise

Different experts, various angles

- Global team: North, South, East, West.
- Bear biology, wildlife management, environmental sciences, social sciences, political sciences, communications.
- Representatives of: NGO (international and national), government (international and national), independent consultants, IUCN specialists.

Production

- Preparation of workshop
- 3-day workshop
- Production of draft document
- 4 month reviewed
- 2 months peer-reviewed by other specialist not involved in the workshop